

CRIMSON-TIGER GAME CHIEF ATTRACTION

New York, Nov. 4.—One inter-variety classic and three inter-sectional contests feature the eastern football program this week-end.

The Harvard-Princeton game, with its traditions dating back to 1877, draws special attention. Although the Notre-Dame-Princeton game, which is the first of the season, is the most prominent because of the different sections of the country represented.

Among the more important of the week-end games are the Columbia-Cornell, Lafayette-Pennsylvania, Wakefield-Amherst, Bucknell-Navy, Penn State-Cornell Tech and Fordham-Georgetown struggles.

Princeton and Harvard, with a record of two wins in the last two years, are expected to furnish much of the excitement. Both universities will be represented by their strongest combinations, something that has been missing in the recent games of the two institutions. The Tigers, reinforced by their backfield stars, Louie and Clark, expect to present the sturdiest lineup of the year, with second string and backfield substitutes of scarcely lesser calibre available to rush into the play at any moment.

The Crimson will face the Orange, and Black with all its regulars in the field formation. Captain Kane, Hubbard and Brown will be in their regular line positions and the backfield probably will comprise Buell, Owen, Gratwick and Pitts.

Spectators probably will be repaid by seeing a battle royal between eleven teams possessing brilliant forward passing combinations, and punters and field goal kickers of more than ordinary ability. Plenty of open and over-head play is expected.

Similar aerial fireworks are predicted for the Army-Notre Dame game, for the Indians players, always noted for their splendidly conceived and executed forward passes, have an excellent record in this department. The game is expected to be a hard fought one, with the Indians having the advantage of the half in a recent game. Notre Dame gained more than 200 yards in their last game, and this against one of the strongest teams of the mid-west.

The game is not without an aerial element, but this feature is less substantiated in straight line bucking and end runs.

Tomorrow's principal games and the results of a year ago follow:

Harvard at Princeton, 14 to 11.
Notre Dame at Army, 27 to 37.
Maryland at Yale did not meet.
Columbia at Pittsburgh did not meet.
Cornell at Columbia, 21 to 7.

Lafayette at Pennsylvania, 6 to 7.
Fordham at Georgetown, 16 to 25.
Marist at Boston College, 3 to 13.
Wakefield at Amherst, 7 to 0.
Rochester at Colgate, 21 to 14.
Carnegie Tech at Penn State, did not meet.

Union at Williams, 0 to 35.
Swarthmore at Stevens, 7 to 14.
St. Bonaventure at Brown did not meet.

Johns Hopkins at Lehigh, 0 to 55.
Bates at Holy Cross did not meet.

EFFORT TO RECOVER MONEY

LOANED RICHARD

New York, Nov. 4.—In an effort to recover money said to have been loaned to Richard J. Fox, the promotion of the John-Jeffries bout in 1910 and other big sporting events, Frank D. Armstrong, broker, today sought to have the promoter and two corporations in which he is interested thrown into the hands of a receiver.

Upon Armstrong's application, Supreme Court Justice Hotchkiss signed an order requiring Richard, the Madison Square Garden Corporation and the Madison Square Garden Sporting Club, Inc. to show cause next Monday why a receiver should not be appointed for their interest in the property.

In his complaint Armstrong stated he advanced Richard $10,000 to aid in promoting the John-Jeffries contest, although he had been the promoter when he managed the Gamble-Nelson bout in Goldfield, Nevada, and when he obtained in lease on Madison Square Garden.

The two corporations named in the complaint, Armstrong alleged, owed Richard $250,000, but Richard had told him he had no money to pay his debts. The complaint added that upon his recommendation, William W. Armstrong, president of the National College Bank of Salt Lake City, also had loaned money to Richard.

ACADEMY CLASHES WITH

OLD RIVAL BULLDOGS TODAY

After an inspiring talk by Coach McKay and a hand practice, Friday afternoon, the Academy warriors are ready to compete with their old-time rivals, Bulldogs of New London, at Plant field today.

The Norwich boys sure did look good while practicing Friday afternoon. Play after play went through clean as white. There was no string in carrying the ball or catching or punting it. The boys are out for big stakes and they have put their minds to bringing home a victory.

On the other hand Bulldogs is as eager to grab the victory as Norwich. It will be a game, not only of brawn and power but of cunning. Each side will try to outwit the other.

People who can possibly attend the game should come along and join the school body which will cheer its team throughout the contest. Bulldogs has been cleaning up not a few games and a victory for them will mean another feather in their hat. They have a good team, their line is powerful and the backfield is fast. The Academy will have to watch Lyons and McDonald.

For Norwich the probable lineup will be: Semple and Meek, ends; Siga and Livingston, guards; Van Wageningen, center; Covey, quarterback; Capt. Reed, right half; Williams, left half; and Brown, fullback.

Boydton, the fighting fullback, has been taken sick and will not in all probability play in tomorrow's contest.

Bullkeley's lineup: Loary center, Davidson and Chapman guards, Bivens and Smith ends, probably Waterston, Smith or Zapp tackles; Lyons quarterback; St. Germain, Fowler and McDonald, backs.

The team will leave Norwich around 1 o'clock and will be followed later by the student body.

PRINCETON AND HARVARD

READY FOR TODAY'S GAME

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 4.—The football eleven of Princeton and Harvard held their last practice this afternoon in preparation for the first of the "big three" battles of the year tomorrow in the Palmer stadium.

The Crimson squad, 70 strong, arrived in Trenton shortly after noon and came direct to Princeton in motor coaches for a drill in the stadium. Most of the attention of the coaches was directed upon Pitts and Owen, punters, and Pfaffman and Buell, drop kickers, whose work is expected to count heavily in the outcome of the game.

The air currents in the big concrete hushes worried the kickers for a short time, but before they left all were performing in good shape, the punters averaging 45 yards and the drop kickers booting the ball with accuracy from the 15 to the 40 yard lines.

The Tigers contented themselves with signal drill and quit work early in order to give the visitors an opportunity to get accustomed to the stadium.

Bob Fisher, the Harvard coach, and Bill Roper, chief of the Tiger instructors, said the members of both elevens are in excellent physical condition.

The probable lineup: Harvard, Princeton.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

HEAVY TRADING IN BONDS

New York, Nov. 4.—Trading in bonds again overshadowed dealings in all other securities on the stock exchange today. Various domestic and foreign issues featured during the day was registered highest prices for a year or more.

Liberty bonds and Victory notes continued to move forward under the impulse given the investment demand by nation-wide indications of credit confidence. Most of the Liberty notes at their new high records, showed extreme values of 10 to 100 points. Victory 2 1/2's were at their maximum for the year and Victory 4's showed a decided upward trend.

Among the foreign bonds—many of which suffered acute depression while the war was in progress—were the French government 4's and 5's, and the Belgian government 4's and 5's, both showing a decided upward trend.

Other European bonds including many municipal issues displayed notable strength and Chilean government 5's were at a premium above yesterday's substantial advance. The latter was attributed to the basis of domestic confidence, were also noticeable better reflecting the importance of the stock market. Total bond (par value) aggregated $22,575,000.

There was no trading in stocks, although the market was somewhat unsettled. The market was somewhat unsettled, but the bond market was very active.
